SAINT PATRICK'S EVEN-SONG

Anthem for St. Patrick's Day and the feast of St. Michael and All Angels

Tenth century Irish hymn

* The anthem was at first composed to be sung without accompaniment. The organ part, which is a later addition, may be dispensed with at will. In this case the interlude at bars 49-62 should give place to one bar of silence. Also, the treble lead in bar 45 should begin two bars earlier, the other voices sustaining "repose" and making their only rest the crochets rest of bar 46.
