Dr. Benjamin Bolden, music educator and composer, is an assistant professor of music education at Queen's University. His research interests include the teaching and learning of composing, community music, and Web 2.0 technologies in education. As a teacher, Ben has worked with pre-school, elementary, secondary, and university students in Canada, England, and Taiwan. An associate composer of the Canadian Music Centre, Ben's works have been performed by a variety of professional and amateur performing ensembles. Ben is editor of the Canadian Music Educator, official journal of the Canadian Music Educators' Association/L'Association canadienne des musiciens éducateurs.
