This song is meant to be a fun, light, obvious message. Nobody likes to hear a sermon about how materialistic our world has become. The Beatles sang "Money Can't Buy Me Love" and this song says "Money and Possessions Can't Buy You Happiness". We've all heard the tongue-in-cheek words of wisdom - "the person who dies with the most toys wins". Then there's the famous play by Kaufman and Hart - "You Can't Take it With You". Relationships built on love = true joy; this is what I hope to convey in this song. (Dr. Larry Nickel)
